- 5. In the Hanchiang (119-05, 25-28) area civilian laborers, under the supervision of army engineers, are building small junks, each with a capacity of 3-5 persons. As of 22 march construction had been completed on 340 of these junks, all of which are now in Hsinghua Bay (119-, 25-). According to a Chinese Communist engineer in the area, these junks are to be used in attacks on Nationalist-held islands along the Fukien coast.
